The Firm Says

Retention Question - Mentoring Program/Associates - Summer associates are encouraged to undertake projects in a variety of BrownWinick's practice areas, without a forced rotation system. Summer Associates are given challenging assignments that reflect work typically done by junior associates. Lawyers at all levels work closely with summer associates and the firm strongly encourages the lawyers to involve summer associates in the cases and transactions on which they are working. The summer associates often have the opportunity to attend client meetings, help to prepare witnesses for their testimony at trial and to attend depositions, hearings and trials.

Retention Question - Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions - It is the policy of BrownWinick to grant up to twelve weeks of job-protected family and medical leave during any twelve-month period to eligible employees, in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act. This policy is designed to allow you to meet your personal and family needs while continuing your employment with BrownWinick. The leave may be paid, unpaid, or a combination of paid and unpaid, depending on the circumstances and as specified in this policy. To be eligible for family and medical leave, you must have worked for BrownWinick for twelve months. These twelve months need not be consecutive months. You must have worked for 1,250 hours during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the date the leave is requested to commence. Eligible employees may request up to twelve weeks of family leave within a twelve-month period. The twelve-month period will be measured forward commencing with the date of the employee's first family and medical leave. If you do not meet the above requirements but need to take a medical leave, please see Human Resources for further information. To be eligible for this type of leave, you must be taking it for one of the following reasons: (1) The birth of a child; (2) Placement of child for adoption or foster care; (3) Caring for a spouse, child or parent (not including "in-laws") with a serious health condition; (4) Your own serious health condition that makes you unable to perform the essential functions of your position.

BrownWinick's Diversity Statement - At BrownWinick, we are committed to acknowledging and appreciating ethnic, racial and gender diversity by creating an environment in which every individual's unique strengths and abilities are developed and valued. All BrownWinick employees share in the responsibility for creating this environment and are expected to demonstrate mutual respect and acceptance in the work place. At BrownWinick, we believe that utilizing our employee's uniqueness enhances communication, problem-solving and decision-making skills, thereby improving organizational productivity and performance. We also believe that if our employees mirror the diverse make-up of our community and the clients we serve, we will be able to better understand and more effectively respond to market changes.

BrownWinick has an established policy of EEO and Affirmative Action principles. The Firm's continued success depends on the full and effective utilization of qualified persons without regard to race, gender, national origin, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, Veteran status, or any other classifications protected by federal, state or local law. The Firm's commitment to provide equal opportunity encompasses all phases of employment, including recruitment, selection, job assignment, classification, salary increases, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, training programs and retirement. BrownWinick has reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities and other protected classes as required by law. BrownWinick bases employment decisions on merit, qualifications and competence, and expects our employees to comply with the spirit and intent of equal employment.
