★ KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Governor: Rob Sand (D) wins the open seat by 11.0 pts (149,911 votes); the office changes party control.
- U.S. Senate: Josh Turek (D) wins by 4.1 pts (55,871 votes; all counties complete); seat changes party.
- Other statewide offices: Democrat Nate Willems wins Attorney General, a change of party (R → D). Republicans lead 3: Secretary of State (Paul D. Pate), Treasurer of State (Roby Smith), Secretary of Agriculture (Mike Naig); Democrats lead 1: Auditor of State (Taylor Wettach). No other office changes party. Margins under 1 point: Auditor of State 0.5 pts (6,473 votes), Treasurer of State 0.7 pts (9,185 votes).
- Iowa House: 56 R – 44 D (was 67–33). Republicans are short of the 67 seats needed for two-thirds — the threshold for veto overrides.
- Iowa Senate: 32 R – 18 D (was 33–17). Republicans are short of the 34 seats needed for two-thirds — the threshold for veto overrides and for Senate confirmation of a governor's appointees.
- Battlegrounds: 14 of 24 featured legislative races changed party: HD 28 (R→D), HD 40 (R→D), HD 41 (R→D), HD 43 (R→D), HD 46 (R→D), HD 52 (R→D), HD 59 (R→D), HD 69 (R→D), HD 72 (R→D), HD 96 (R→D), HD 99 (R→D), SD 21 (R→D), SD 35 (D→R), SD 47 (R→D).
- Close legislative races: 13 House races and 4 Senate races were decided by 5 points or less (6 House and 4 Senate are featured races); all are listed on the close-races page.
- Closest featured race (by points): SD 47 — Nikhil Wagle (D) by 151 votes (0.48 pts); next is Auditor of State (0.49 pts). A candidate may request a recount after the county canvass (Iowa Code ch. 50).
- Reporting status: as of the SOS update at 6:42 a.m. CT, all 1,659 of 1,659 precincts in all 99 counties had reported. Results stay unofficial until the county canvass. Legislative races under 1 point (HD 19 by 37 votes, SD 47 by 151) are close enough that a recount may be requested after the canvass.
